

Slow Motion

Everything is in slow motion
And I explode
With my thoughts and my emotions
Space for a new direction
Even if there is no knowledge about it
No words for it

Everything is out of order
And I get my new system
Out of nowhere
Outer space
Deep and new Strong and new

Pressure in both directions
Positive and negative
Shame and joy
About an individual liberation in view of a worldwide disaster

Hope is gone
Trust takes its place
