

Rediscovering ourselves in an Italian environment with nature, art, history, language and food opens up new perspectives in all areas of life. The bridge between the 'EmptyRoom' and 'MyWay' concepts is sustainability: by returning to familiar surroundings, the insights gained can be deepened and established in everyday life. In this way, the exit becomes a sustainable entry with a new attitude in daily life.

